COUNTRY AWAITS WITH INTEREST ELECTION'S EFFECT ON TRUMAN

Mr. Truman is now on his own. And being President by popular choice instead of by accident is bound to make a great difference. The country will be waiting with interest and perhaps some anxiety to see how his reaction to the vote will affect his attitude and policies.

It seems natural that the election results might give Mr. Truman more poise and confidence and stature. But will he feel vengeful toward those in his party who abandoned him to what seemed certain defeat, and left him to win his amazing victory almost single-handed? Will that victory encourage him to strike out on a bold course, or will the narrowness of its margin dictate prudence and caution?

Will he attempt to reassemble the Democratic Party with the same components that adhered to it in the Roosevelt days, or will he try to purge the extremists and settle their Wallace and Dixiecrat parties? Will he administer the country's affairs with an eye toward re-election?

These questions, while they cannot be answered now, may have a decisive bearing on the conduct of our government and on world affairs in the next four years. And while the answers must wait on Mr. Truman's actions, some of the most important influences which will be brought to bear can already be seen.

One is the survival of the New Deal tradition. The 1946 congressional elections might have led some to believe that American opinion was shifting to the right of center. But on Nov. 2 the majority vote shifted it right back again. This was even more apparent in the turnover of Congress than in the choice of President.

How far and how quickly will Mr. Truman follow this lead? He may be influenced by the knowledge that he owes nothing to the big-city leaders and many of the top Southern Democrats for his victory. Since neither group is rabidly New Dealish, the President does not need to hesitate on their account. On the other hand he does owe something to pro-New Deal organized labor—not to the top-level leaders so much as to junior officials who rang doorbells and got out the vote that may have turned the tide.

At the same time there have been indications that Mr. Truman may have clung to New Deal policies through loyalty or duty or expediency more than through conviction. This suspicion is bolstered by his Cabinet appointments.

Another brake on any sweeping domestic program may be the expense. With stepped-up rearmament and the world aid program, and with peacetime taxes about as high as any politician wants to see them, there aren't going to be any billions lying around for unessential projects.

If the President does not take the very fact of his election as a signal for full speed ahead, then the size of his opposition may persuade him to go slow. The smallest vote in 12 years gave him a plurality of a little more than 4 per cent as against Mr. Roosevelt's majority of 18 per cent in 1932, 24 per cent in 1936, and more than 7 per cent in 1940 and 1944. Wendell Willkie, losing in 1940, polled substantially the same number of votes as Mr. Truman did this year.

So the important factor of unity must be considered in Mr. Truman's program for the future. Unity was Governor Dewey's theme in this campaign, and Mr. Truman was inclined to scoff at it. But we trust that the scoffing was that of a campaigning politician and that, as statesman, the President will chart a progressive course in domestic as well as foreign affairs that the whole country can support and follow.

The Loyal Partner's class of Central Christian church held a Thanksgiving party and potluck supper Tuesday evening at the church. Table decorations were in keeping with the theme of Thanksgiving and featured hand-painted nut cups and candles.

Following the supper, a business meeting was conducted by the president, Don Hamey. Mrs. Darwin Renard read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Games were played, for which prizes were won by Roy Huan, Mrs. Helen Hamey and Mrs. Minor Prather.

The committee in charge was comprised of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ruble, co-chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kraushaar and Mr. and Mrs. William Doyle.

Rubiyat Discussed at Tuesday Club Meeting

"The Rubiyat" by Omar Khayyam was discussed by the Rev. Arthur F. Ewert at the guest day meeting held at Ann Rutledge hall, MacMurray college, Tuesday afternoon by members of the Tuesday club.

Rev. Ewert stated that Khayyam, besides being a poet, was also a scientist, philosopher, astrologist and musician. Although his works were produced in the 11th century, they were not widely known until they were translated into English by Edward Fitzgerald, a poet of the 19th century. Rev. Ewert was introduced to the group by Mrs. J. Marshall Miller.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. C. R. Gibson, who presented the program chairman, Mrs. Waldo McCreery. The musical portion of the program was given by Mrs. Ralph Hutchison, who described various types of music, illustrating her talks with piano selections. She also served as accompanist for Mrs. Lois Hardin and Mrs. Francis Plouer, who presented a group of vocal numbers.

During the social period refreshments were served from a tea table, at which Miss Mary Knollenberg and Mrs. Harry Kitzer presided.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Waldo McCreery, Mrs. C. N. Wright and Mrs. J. C. Colton.

Honor their names— and remember!

In city squares and on village greens throughout the land, there stand the Rolls of Honor.

They bear the names of those who served—in one or both great wars—that peace again might live and freedom endure.

Will new names—an even longer list—someday be added in another war? Your name? The names of your children?

A lot depends on the strength of our determination—and the strength of our Armed Forces. For only a strong America can stand firm against aggression, can command the respect and attention its plea for peace deserves.

Our Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines and Coast Guardsmen must be the best—alert, efficient, expertly trained. They must be equipped with the very latest in scientific advancement. Above all, they need the wholehearted support of every loyal American to maintain the strength authorized by Congress.

On this our thirtieth Armistice Day, we would do well to remember not only those who sustained us in war, but those who now stand between us and the threat of attack.

Last time we forgot. And in our forgetfulness, we allowed our Armed Forces to grow weak. In our weakness, we could only hope. We cannot—we must not—repeat that tragic mistake.

On this day of memory, let every one of us resolve that America shall stay strong.

End Job Of Laying 4 Miles Of Tile To Drain Field

The laying of more than four miles of tile to drain approximately 80 acres of the W. A. Martin farm west of Concord has been completed by the Phillips Construction company of Roodhouse. The undertaking, which began Oct. 19, was under the technical supervision of Ted Pierce, soil conservationist for Morgan county.

The soil in the field is a rather light clay, requiring many lines of drain tile to do the job. The east-west trunk line, 2,950 feet long, was built of six and eight inch tile; the many laterals which run from 1,360 to 1,200 feet to the south are six inches in diameter. Average depth is around four feet.

The network drains into an open ditch which connects with Big Indian.

C. J. Lowry of Quincy, work group engineer of the Soil Conservation service, aided in the preliminary surveys of the tract which often failed to make good crops due to improper drainage.

Mr. Martin plans to build a concrete tank and connecting line to furnish water for the farm's livestock during most of the year.

"The system will be a help to about another 20 acres of the Martin farm," Mr. Pierce said Tuesday. "I'm recommending a rotation of corn, oats and two years of alfalfa to help the installation do the job."

MENTHOLATUM

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

To Dunk or Not To Dunk?

Dunking doughnuts is Sober Hopkins' favorite morning pastime... and for a long time Ma Hopkins has been trying to break him of the habit. Feels it sets a bad example for the children.

So one morning she puts a heavy frosting of chocolate on the doughnuts... figuring that will stop him. Sober thinks it over for a while and then: Dunk! Taste? Smile!! And Sober compliments the missus on the lovely mocha flavor!

I guess there'll always be two schools of thought: to dunk or not to dunk. But from where I sit, it's a matter of personal choice and taste—like some folks prefer beer to cider, ale to beer. And the less we criticize those differences of taste, the better.

In fact, Ma Hopkins got so curious about the flavor of chocolate-covered doughnuts dunked in coffee, that she tried it herself. Now—you've guessed it—she's a daily dunker, too!

All Youths Must Register As They Become Eighteen

Inquiries received at State Headquarters and at the local board office indicate a great deal of misunderstanding exists as to when young men becoming 18 are required to register. Colonel Paul G. Armstrong, State Director of Selective Service, stated Wednesday, a great many people think another special registration will be set for these men. However, registration for 18-year olds is continuous and every male citizen is required to register at the local board nearest his home within 5 days after his birthday; if away from home, he may go to the nearest local board office and register taking care to see that his home address is on line 2 of Registration Card, because that address will determine the local board of jurisdiction.

There are also quite a few men between the ages of 18 and 26 who, for some reason, have failed to register; many because they had completed service in the Armed Forces during World War II or were previously registered under the 1940 law, and believe they do not have to register now. However, all men 18 through 25 who have thus far failed to register, have violated the law, and could, if arrested and convicted, suffer severe penalties under the law. Police officers now ask men in this age group, who may be stopped for traffic violations or any other cause, for their draft cards. Failure to have one is cause for arrest and notification to the Federal authorities. Therefore, all men who have failed thus far to register, should immediately present themselves to the nearest local board for registration which they may do, for a limited time, without penalty.

Crimsons And Tigers Meet In Intracity Contest Today

Major League Moguls Avoid Bonus Players In Draft Wednesday

Cincinnati, Nov. 10.—(P)—Those talent-tagged kids known as bonus players were ignored today as the major league clubs staged their annual draft.

Although the minors are studded with 270 youngsters who were good enough to get $6,000 or more for penning their names to contracts, not one was considered ready for a big league trial.

Instead, the major moguls hand-picked 19 players from the high minors at a cost of $182,500 as they sought experienced talent to plug their leaky lineups for the 1949 flag chase. Last year 13 clubs drafted 29 players costing $275,000.

About 5,400 players from 56 leagues were eligible to receive the major league call, but the big top took 16 from the Triple-A circuits—six from the International and five each from the Pacific Coast and American Association—two from the Double-A Southern Association, and one from the Double-A Texas league.

Chicago's White Sox, with outgoing General Manager Leslie O'Connor and incoming General Manager Frank Lane doing the picking, were the heavy buyers as they put $30,000 on the line for a pitcher, catcher and infielder.

New York, Pittsburgh and Brooklyn in the National league, and New York and Boston of the American did not put in a bid.

Selected Outfielders
The two 1948 pennant winners went for outfielders. Boston's Braves getting two and Cleveland's world champions one. The Braves took Don Thompson, 24-year-old southpaw who hit .285 in 121 games for Columbus, and Charlie Gilbert of Nashville. Manager Billy Southworth said Gilbert, son of Nashville Manager Harry Gilbert, batted .385 "and hit a flock of homers. He'll be a big help to us."

Cleveland grabbed off Herman Reich, a right-handed hitter who went for a .324 average at Portland, Ore. President Bill Veeck of the Tribe, tagged Reich as "a 50-year-old ball-hawk who can powder that ball."

The majors paid $10,000 each for the AAA players, and $7,500 each for the AA stars. The draft remains in effect until midnight of Nov. 13, clubs being permitted to make further selections by telegram to Commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler who presided at today's selections.

Here are the draft selections, and what they did in 1948:

National League
Chicago: Dwain Sloat, left-handed pitcher, won 10 last for St. Paul; James Kirby, right-handed batter, outfielder, who hit .286 in 152 games for Shreveport.

Cincinnati: Homer E. Howell, catcher with San Francisco, batted .292; John S. Pramesa, catcher, batted .284 for Jersey City.

Philadelphia: Bob Blattner, former

Saukees, Panthers Conclude Seasons With Victories

Winchester—Pittsfield defeated Coach Howard Lester's Wildcats 20-0 here Wednesday night in the season finale for both elevens. The win salted away the Illinois Valley conference crown for Coach Glen Smith's Saukees.

The ancient rivalry, which has always produced good football, came up with another dandy. But, instead of a high-scoring game, which had been expected by many, the fray developed into a defensive battle.

One touchdown was the only scoring through the initial three quarters of the engagement. One yard each period goal staked—only a yard each out—helped hold down the score.

It wasn't until the final chapter that the visitors were able to show much of their vaunted power.

Pittsfield came in the second canto on Hubbard's 10-yard dash off tackle.

In the fourth stanza, J. Colver plunged for one touchdown and Jack Williams went five yards around end for the other. Bob Kattelman kicked both extra points, after missing on the first try.

By quarters:
Pittsfield 0 6 0 14-20
Officials: McQueen, referee; Roellig, umpire; Orr, head linesman; all of Springfield.

Pleasant Hill—Jerseyville concluded the most successful season in school history here Wednesday afternoon by swamping an outmanned Pleasant Hill eleven, 52-0.

The Panther victory assured Coach E. V. Hall's outfit of second place in the Ivy conference. The only Jerseyville defeat was a 7-6 setback at the hand of Pittsfield. Pittsfield has the only undefeated, untied record in this area.

Three Sophomore Halfbacks Lead First-Year Men

New York, Nov. 10.—(P)—Chuck Ortmann of Michigan, Gil Stephenson of Army and Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist are stacking up as "sophomores of the year" in college football.

These three gifted halfbacks are brightest of a healthy crop of star-studded newcomers to varsity play. Ortmann, a 19-year-old product of Milwaukee, has become the top offensive performer of the rugged Western conference while leading the Wolverines to their current No. 1 spot in the nation.

Fine Passer
A crack passer, he has completed 19 of 36 tosses for 371 yards—best in the league—and has gained 113 yards on the ground for an offensive total of 484 yards.

Six-foot-one, 183 pounds Ortmann is rated one of the best looking backs to hit the football-leverish midlands.

Stephenson, up for Columbus, Ga., is currently engaged in making Army fans forget Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis. A tricky runner, he has rolled up 761 yards to rank as the fourth best ball-carrier in the country. He has scored nine touchdowns.

Rote, only sophomore member of a backfield that also contains all-America Doc Walker, has carried the ball 67 times for 247 yards, completed 31 passes for 340 more and caught 12 passes for 189.

In any other backfield except S.M.U.'s—where Walker, the No. 1 sophomore of 1947, naturally dominates—Rote might stand alone as the season's outstanding varsity fledgling.

Other Soph Stars
Other leading soph backfield men are Leo Kocesi of Michigan, whose 30 points lead the Big Nine in scoring; John Brogan, Idaho's great triple threat; Marvin Cross, Washington State's 200-pounder; Oklahoma's regulars, fullback Leon Heath and halfback Lindell Pearson; and Red Bagnell, Penn's passing star.

Here are some of the midwest's sophomore standouts:
Ends—Robert Wartinbee, Wisconsin; Henry Minarik, Michigan State; Bob Whitmer, Purdue.

Tackles—Allen Wahl, Michigan; Duck Mueller, Illinois; Rudy Cernoch, Northwestern.

Guards—Charles Yderstad, Wisconsin; Al Tate, Illinois; Richie Anderson, Northwestern.

Centers—John Packo, Detroit; Jerry Groom, Notre Dame; Ray Wecha, Northwestern.

Backs—Jack Landry and Bob Williams, Notre Dame; Mike Ghnoully, Missouri; Sam Fajal, Illinois.

North Carolina, Maryland Promise Defensive Gem

New York, Nov. 10.—(P)—If the figures can be trusted, the tightest defensive struggle scheduled on any gridiron this week end is that between North Carolina and Maryland at Griffith Stadium in Washington.

About the only conclusion to be drawn from statistics released today by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau is that the meeting of the two rock-ribbed southern rivals will produce a score-less tie, barring a field goal.

Lead Various Divisions
North Carolina is second only to Georgia Tech both in total defense and rushing defense among all the major teams, and its punting average is the best. Maryland tops them all in defense against enemy passes and stands fourth in total defense.

Additionally, Maryland shares with Clemson the distinction of having held opponents to the fewest points scored—33 in seven games.

Despite its upset by Tennessee last Saturday, Georgia Tech leads for the fourth straight week in total defense, having allowed seven rallies an average of 130.3 yards. North Carolina has permitted 141.3, Army 161.1 and Maryland 163.3. From there the figures soar rapidly.

Opposing ball-carriers have averaged only 47.1 yards against Tech. North Carolina has yielded 55.9 yards per game overland, Pennsylvania 64.2 and Minnesota 78.

Good Pass Defense
Maryland's alert secondary has failed to knock down only 26 out of 93 passes thrown against it and has given up an average of but 4.3 yards per game to enemy aerials going into its hand-to-hand struggle with North Carolina's Charlie Justice this week.

Thanks to Justice's kicking foot, the Tar Heels boast the best team punting average in the country—43.6 yards on 45 boots. Furman is second at 42.3.

The week's overall statistical picture—ranging in both offensive and defensive talents—gives Army's Cadets the highest national rating. Coach Earl Blaik's tars lead in rushing offense, are second in total offense and third in total defense.

PROFIT-TAKING, LACK OF NEW SALES CAUSE OF GRAIN DECLINE

Chicago, Nov. 10.—(P)—Grains opened lower today and never were able to make up the lost ground. Profit-taking, lack of new buying and worry over the effects of a wildcat strike among dock workers in the east caused the sell-off.

Dealings were very active as the market headed downward. Traders said the slump was not unexpected in view of the market's strength since election day. Cash corn prices eased a bit with futures, but offerings of cash grain on a to-arrive basis continued small.

Receipts were: wheat 6 cars, corn 416, oats 15 and soybeans 39. End Lou Hoitsma Thrilled By Pick 'Lineman Of Week'

Williamsburg, Va., Nov. 10.—(P)—Lou Hoitsma raised up from his end position and just sort of grinned. The 6-foot, 2-inch William and Mary flankman was every inch a pleased football player.

Hoitsma had just been told he'd been selected today as the Lineman of the Week in the Associated Press poll. That honor was his for a brilliant performance in William and Mary's surprising 7-7 tie last Saturday with North Carolina.

"Gosh," he mumbled, "this is the biggest surprise of my life. I don't know what to say."

Asked about his circus catch of a 21-yard touchdown pass from tailback Tommy Korcoski, Hoitsma said he "didn't know what was going on from the time the play started until they were putting the score on the scoreboard."

"They told me in the huddle to get down into the end zone," Hoitsma said, "and get that ball. And I just had to get that ball."

William and Mary Coach R. N. (Ube) McCray described the Pateron, N. J., senior as a "quiet, well-mannered sort of fellow everybody likes."

Chambersburg Again Threat In PMBC Loop

Chambersburg—Coach Eldon Atwood and his Chambersburg Raiders may be a power in the P.M.B.C. conference again this season. That's the indication from the home camp of the Red and White.

The Chambersburg quintet, which last season won 22 games and lost only six while taking second in the P.M.B.C. conference, second in the Virginia tournament and second in the district meet, will have a hard time replacing Lyle "Butch" Pool their 1947-48 star who is now holding forth at Western Illinois State, but six of nine lettermen are returning.

Lost, in addition to Pool, are Gale Jackson, Kenneth Ham, David Chute and James Gordley.

Returning lettermen include Ed Browning, Roger Ham, Duane Pool and Bill Gordley.

Other promising candidates are: Dick Kleinlein, Ronald Ham, Marion Chute, Bill Crawford, Jerry Gordley and Donald Downey.

By Charles Bellatti

Our best showing of the season was racked up last week, a snappy 321 (35 right, 3 wrong, 2 ties). That moves us up to .825, for the season and puts us on the threshold of the tid bit of prognosticating we have been dreading since we were bitten by the "prediction bug."

Here goes:
ILLINOIS DEAF 13, JACKSONVILLE HIGH 7—On the basis of season records and late showings. We've watched these two clubs all season with an eye toward hitting this one on the nose. But we just can't make up our mind. The little pieces don't fit together in a definite pattern.

If Jacksonville plays the type of ball it exhibited against Beards-town and Rushville, we'd have to take the Crimsons. If Illinois Deaf goes at top speed (such as shown in the Indiana Deaf encounter), the Tigers will be hard to stop.

Performances of both J.H.S. and I.S.D. were disappointing last week. If they both come back strong (and that's a distinct possibility) this might well end in a tie.

WAVERLY 14, KINCAID 7—The Ponies 19 points against I.S.D. were a gift. The Scotties, in the depth of their worse injury depression of the season, made far the better showing against the westenders.

Illinois Valley scores, as we saw them, were listed in Wednesday papers because of the early start the preppers are getting this week.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE 21, ELM-HURST 0—The Blueboys are keyed up for this one. Every player that can struggle into a suit will be ready for action—that's how intense the feeling against the invaders is. Elmhurst will be "down" after the terrific lacing absorbed at the hand of North Central last week. This should be a tilt well worth seeing.

And, into the big ones:
ILLINOIS 14, OHIO STATE 7—A wild shot in the dark, but the old hunch got the better of us. The Illini are coming up. They would have beaten Iowa by four touchdowns had it not been for severe penalties at inopportune times. What with homecoming and all, Ray Elliot's game might give one of those "perfection" performances that "Butch" often inspires. This will probably be one of the most interesting games of the week.

NORTHWESTERN 28, NOTRE DAME 27—Probably the first time we have ever picked the Irish to lose—but they're human, too, and they're due to lose a close one.

MINNESOTA 21, IOWA 7—We weren't at all impressed with Iowa in their appearance against Illinois last week. But give them a touchdown on DiMarco's passing. He might connect with one of those long ones.

PURDUE 14, PITTSBURGH 7—These hunches can get a guy in trouble, so we stuck to the ratings in this one. Somehow, though, we've gotten the idea that Pitt will win.

WISCONSIN 21, MARQUETTE 7—The Hilltoppers haven't shown much, especially in their last loss to Michigan State. However, Marquette is young and erratic and might sneak in against the Badgers, who are anything but world-beaters.

NAVY 14, COLUMBIA 7—The first win of the season for the Midgies. But in a mighty close, and mighty thrilling, engagement.

ARMY 21, PENNSYLVANIA 14—Another top-notch attraction. Army didn't look terrific against Illinois, but the Illini are the only eleven able to count more than once against the Cadets. So—

CORNELL 14, DARTMOUTH 13—An east-coast headliner which could well develop into an upset.

GEORGIA TECH 20, ALABAMA 0—Tech will bounce back with plenty of zip and make a good showing.

TULANE 7, BAYLOR 6—A close game which will lean toward the defensive side, although both clubs have potent attacks.

TENNESSEE 14, MISSISSIPPI 13—Another close one. Watch out you Vols.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN 13, TEXAS 6—The rivalry in which anything can happen. It will.

CALIFORNIA 21, WASHINGTON STATE 7—The Golden Bears are going into the Rose Bowl—undefeated.

Now the quickies: Oregon 20, U.C. L.A. 7; Princeton 14, Yale 7; Brown 7, Harvard 0; Holy Cross 28, Fordham 7; Colgate 14, Syracuse 7; Rutgers 20, New York U. 0; North Carolina 19, Maryland 7; Duke 20, George Washington 0; Kentucky 20, Florida 14; Mississippi State 14, Louisiana State 7; Clemson 14, Wake Forest 13; Vanderbilt 20, Marshall 0; Delaware 14, Rollins 0; Rice 21, Texas A & M 7; Oklahoma 20, Nebraska 0; Missouri 21, Colorado 7; Southern Cal 14, Washington 6.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—(P)—Ben Hogan, who has earned $32,112 in the professional golfer's association tournament this year, picked up another honor today when

THE STORY
Time, 1880
Louis Durand, 27, a well-to-do bachelor, has been corresponding with Miss Julia Russell, whom he has never seen. He has proposed marriage and she has accepted. According to her picture, Miss Russell is dark-haired, strong featured and no longer young. Durand goes down to the dock to meet the boat that is to bring her from St. Louis. He is dumfounded when an exquisite young blond creature introduces herself as Julia. She explains her little deceit by saying she didn't want him to fall for just a pretty face. Durand is enchanted with her and they are married. Certain things puzzle him, however, during their first days together. Among them is the fact that Julia has never opened her trunk. She says she lost the key. When a letter arrives from her sister chiding her with not writing, he insists she reply, takes her letter to mail himself.

THE next morning, he thought she never had looked lovelier, and never had been more loving. She was in lilac watered silk, which had a rippling sheen running down it from whichever side you looked at it. It signified as she walked, as if it itself overcame by her loveliness. She did not stay at table as on other days, she accompanied him to the front door to see him off, her arm linked to his waist, his arm to hers. And as the slanting morning sunlight caught her in its glint, then released her, then caught her again a step further on, playing its mottled game with her all along the hall, he thought he had never seen such a vision of angelic beauty. They stopped. She raised her face from the side of his arm, she took up his hat, she stroked it of dust, she handed it to him. They kissed. She prepared his coat, held it spread, helped him on with it. They kissed. He opened the door in readiness to go. They kissed.

Bountiful Crops Best Government Estimates

Washington, Nov. 10 (AP)—This year's harvest is proving even more bountiful than forecast.

Yields of most late maturing crops, including corn, are turning out better than Oct. 1 forecasts, the agriculture department reported today in its semi-final crop report.

The department boosted its estimate of the 1948 corn crop to 3,849,510,000 bushels. This is 82,000,000 bushels more than the Oct. 1 estimate.

The largest previous corn crop was 3,249,550,000 bushels in 1946. Last year's short crop totaled 2,400,952,000 bushels. The 1937-46 average is 2,813,529,000.

Skip Small Grains

No new estimates were made for wheat, barley, rye and some other grain crops. Last month's estimates will stand until mid-December, when the department will issue its final report for the year.

The 1948 wheat crop is estimated at 1,263,770,000 bushels. Last year's record crop totaled 1,364,519,000 bushels. And the 10-year average is 942,623,000 bushels.

With corn showing the way, the estimated volume of all 1948 crops increased to 137 per cent of the 1923-32 base period. This is 11 points above the previous high mark in 1946.

Tenors: Warren Edwards, Paul Jackson, Ward Koehler, Robert Read, Fred Rupel, Paul Rust, Edward Turner and Joe Smith.

Baritone: Robert Falkenberg.

Dick Mills, Don Rikil, Roderick Sparsholt, Paul Thursty, Harold

Toussaint and Angelo Spinzola.

Bass: Max Aubuchon, Jack Engel, Bob George, Roy Van Gundy, Joe Hill, Glen Lovemack, Jack Rieke, Delmar Seitz, Donald Spick, Ray Stein, Leland Walls and Fred Wittekind.

Altos: Dorothy Foote, Nancy Gustin, Joy Hermesdorf, Mary Lou Keyes, LaVerne Kramp, Emile LaKamp, Nancy Murphy, Donna Jean Postlewait, Mary Robinson, Bettie Ann Rust, Leta Sanderson, Eva Sasaki, Lois Smith, Lois Stratton, Jacqueline Ulrich and Jeanne Shelton.

Sopranos: Joann Beggs, Barbara Bollman, Dolores Carten, Carolyn Cochran, Sally Eurbawa, Gloria Gardner, Janet Graham, Ida Guidice, Dorothy Halpern, Joan Glymer, Virginia Lewis, Helen Mahlergren, Nancy Munk, Alice Penewitt, Jacqueline Prickett, Carol Fisk, Barbara Miles and JoAnn Benson.

The group was led by Ottokar Cadek, first violin, a veteran of many years of quartet playing, and included Margaret Christy, "cello," who also has for several years been heard in ensemble work in the Middle West; Emily Searcy, second violin, and Henry Barrett, viola.

Although these four have actually played together for but one year, the great experience of Mr. Cadek and Miss Christy, combining with the skill and musical understanding of the two younger members, succeeded in creating a harmonious blend and sonority that it normally takes many years of constant playing to achieve.

The first half of the program included Beethoven's second quartet, with its pleasing and fanciful first movement, in which we were particularly impressed by the ethereal pianissimo passage immediately preceding the restatement. The second movement has wonderful contrasts between the profundity of the slow portions and the whimsy of the allegro; and the last movement, in the form of a fugue, gives every instrument its chance to be heard.

The opportunity to show the beauty of his instrument and his individual skill.

Beethoven's work was followed by two movements from two quartets by Tschaiakovsky—the ever popular "Andante Cantabile," which most listeners knew from arrangements for other instruments, and which in its original form is a very tuneful piece for violin, to a string trio's accompaniment; and the more striking "Scherzo," from opus 30, with its fascinating outcries—broken chords presented by the first violin—taken up in sequence by the others.

Debusy Furnishes Climax

The climax of the evening, however, was the Debussy quartet, which the players gave a truly inspired reading. The first movement, with its exuberance and almost orchestral sonority; the second, with its blissful humor and sort of radiance; the third, in which the solo passages of the different instruments seem to symbolize a vain effort of the composer to shake off a sense of deep and irremediable gloom; and the last movement, which, starting in a similar mood, gradually accelerates and reaches a breath of tone most unexpected from but four instruments. It was a very lucid and understandable presentation of a profound work. "Debussy made easy," one might say, if it didn't sound a bit facetious.

Applause For Players

The players were rewarded by extremely enthusiastic applause throughout the evening's program and countered at the close by honoring with "An Irish Melody" by Frank Bridges, and "Minuet," from Schubert's quartet in A-minor, a sample in the most ingratiating manner by the Viennese master.

State Commander Gives Talk, Visits Veterans

Commander William Burns of years in the local Kiwanis club, F. Chicago, head of the Illinois Department of the American Legion, addressed the Jacksonville Kiwanis club at its Armistice Day meeting Wednesday.

Forcibly and earnestly, Burns described the Legion's continuing campaign for preparedness against future wars.

In these critical world times, he declared, there is a crying need for a long range training program. "Universal military training is our best assurance of lasting peace," he said.

Carrying out a tradition of many years in the local Kiwanis club, F. A. Robinson introduced the state Legion head. It has been the custom of the club to invite each year's state commander to give the Armistice Day address.

Cmdr. Burns recalled the formation of the American Legion in 1919 following the armistice of 30 years ago. Ever since its formation the Legion has advocated preparedness and a strong national defense, he declared. The fight against communism has also long been a key point in the organization's program and is even more important now than ever before.

Concluding his address, Cmdr. Burns defended the proposed pension program for veterans. Soldiers and sailors pensions are not new, but have been recognized for years as proper recognition for service to the nation.

Following the Kiwanis program, Cmdr. Burns and his party made a tour of inspection of the veterans' units at the State Hospital.
